Complying with New Jail Codes May be Expensive for County

By Jon Thompson

A plan for a $330,000 addition to the county jail was presented to the Crawford County Board of Commissioners at their regular meeting Thursday, August 27.

The addition - 12 single cells along with an indoor exercise room - would bring the 11-year-old county jail into compliance with new state jail codes.

The Board of Commissioners took no formal action with the plan. Chairperson Jeannette Kitchen said the county is just looking into various ways to bring the jail up to date with state regulations. She said the commissioners have received complaints from several attorneys about conditions for inmates at the county jail.

Two major complaints are lack of single cells and an indoor exercise area, both required by new state codes.

The plan for an addition calls for a 12-cell modular unit built off the south wall of the present jail block toward the river. Underneath the 34-foot by 45-foot modular unit would be a 33-foot by 45-foot exercise room. The modular unit would cost about $300,000 and the lower level exercise room would be about $30,000.

Erwin Haufler, a broker representing R.C.F., a California building firm, said R.C.F. would finance most of the cost of the addition at interest rate of less than eight percent. The county would pay about $65,000 down payment, make five annual payments of about $60,000, and then make a closing payment of about $30,000 for a total of about $400,000. If the county paid cash for the modular unit, the total price would be about $300,000.

The exercise room plan was presented as a separate package by local contractor Jack Steward at a price of $30,000.

Haufler said the new addition might bring enough money for the county to offset annual payments it would make.

"If you could lease out six cells to house prisoners from other counties or from the state, you might make $65,000 a year," Haufler said. "Right now, the state pays $30 a day per cell and counties pay $25 and that's expected to go up to $30 soon."

Sheriff Joe White said the demand by nearby counties for a place to house inmates is high.

"Just this last week and a half we had to turn down six requests," he said.

"And the demand is going up all the time but I'm not going to stand here and guarantee that we could fill up enough cells to pay for the jail."

White also said the housing nearby county inmates would be all right but taking state prisoners would not be wise.

"I'd rather stay away from taking any state prisoners," White said.

Correction officer Mike Johnson said it would not take anyone personnel in-

Hand Grenade Recovered From Jones Lake Campground

A live hand grenade brought into Jones Lake campground by a boy riding a bicycle was properly disposed of by the Camp Grayling Explosives Ordnance Disposal (EOD) team last week.

The boy allegedly picked the grenade up at a nearby off-limits small arms range used by military troops attending Camp Grayling. A couple of years ago, three young boys were injured by hand grenades carried into the campground from the range. Camp Grayling officials urged the public to stay off ranges and leave all military objects alone. Camp Grayling received its own bomb threat Wednesday, August 26, that forced Canadian militia to alter training schedules. The threat appeared to be just a crank call, camp officials said.

An incomplete cabin on Arrowhead Road in Frederic Township was destroyed by fire Thursday morning. Firefighters responding to a neighbors call found the structure burning out of control at 2:05 a.m.

The cause of the fire is believed to be arson, according to the Crawford County Sheriff's Department and a Michigan State Police Fire Marshall. Five juvenile suspects were petitioned to Probate Court in connection with the fire.

The cabin is owned by Raymond Mullen, of Battle Creek.

On Sunday night, a Roscommon man, Ervin Green, fell out of a vehicle and injured his head on the pavement. He was taken to Grayling Mercy Hospital by a Higgins Lake township ambulance crew.

Green was the passenger in a car travelling on M-18 near Gardner Road when the accident occurred.

Proposition I went down to defeat by a vote of 1,522 No and 1,020 Yes. Precinct one (Grayling) votes were 1,115 No, 869 Yes. Precinct two (Frederic) votes were 259 No, 126 Yes. Precinct three (Lovells) votes were 148 No, 25 Yes.

Proposition II was defeated 1,581 No, 966 Yes. Precinct one votes were 1,147 No, 840 Yes; Precinct two 290 No, 95 Yes; Precinct three 144 No, 31 Yes.

Proposition III was defeated 1,708 No, 838 Yes. Precinct one votes were 1,252 No, 732 Yes; Precinct two 305 No, 83 Yes; Precinct three 151 No, 23 Yes.

As a result of the millage defeats, Crawford-AuSable Schools will begin the 1981-82 school year September 9 with 25 fewer teachers than last year. The board of education, at a special meeting called at 9 a.m. Tuesday, voted unanimously to lay off 20 teachers. Five other teachers resigned or were granted leaves.

The non-certified school employees laid-off as a result of the millage defeats will be announced at a special board meeting Thursday noon.

At the special meeting Tuesday, the board also voted unanimously to close the Frederic Elementary

Rocket Football Meeting Sept. 8

There will be a meeting Tuesday evening, Sept. 8th at 7 o'clock, for all adults wishing to coach a Rocket Football Team. The meeting will be held at Mike Shearer's home on Ole Dam Road just past the bridge on the left.

Warning

Weapons firing will be conducted at Camp Grayling during the period 7 - 13 Sept 1981.

Firing will be going on in the following range areas: The Small Arms ranges located west of Lake Margrethe, north of Howe Rd, east of the gas pipeline and south of Portage Creek.

The Range 30 Complex located north of North Down River Rd, east of Jones Lake Rd, south of County Rd 612 and west of Damon Truck Trail.

The Range 40 Complex located north of County Rd 612, east of Guthrie Lake, south of Old State Rd 618 and west of County Rd F97.

The ranges will be closed during the period 7 - 13 Sept 81 and all persons are warned to stay out of the areas identified.

School. Additionally, the board cut all the programs Proposals, I, II, and III were intended to fund.

"These are going to be troubled times for our youngsters," Superintendent William Diedrich said at the meeting. "When you combine two schools like the Grayling and Frederic Elementary schools without increasing staff, you're stuffing youngsters into classes."

"Not only are class sizes increasing to 35 students a room," Diedrich said, "but the big thing is programs will be cut. Kids are not going to have choices anymore. Especially hurt will be the college prep students."

Diedrich also said besides losing some very good teachers, the school district will lose some good students. "There is going to be a natural attrition of students," he said. "People are going to move to send their children to some place that offers the programs we had to cut."

Hoping to offer some alternative to the programs cut, the board directed Diedrich to study the possibility of allowing private contributions to fund programs. Pay-as-you-go programs will also be looked at for all the academic, athletic, and extra-curriculum programs cut.

Besides closing the Frederic Elementary School, among the programs to be cut are vocational education, all library services, high school counseling positions, elementary special education, music, and physical education and the GOAL program.

Additionally, to cut teaching positions, class sizes will be increased to as many as 45 students in a class and

Lillian Hoffman Retires After 37 Years

Lillian Hoffman, of Grayling, thought she would be going to work at the A & P store for two weeks. Instead, she wound up working there 37 years.

"I first started in 1945," she said. "I was just going to help stock for two weeks but they kept me on."

Hoffman, 62, is retiring September 5 after working for nine different managers at two A & P locations in Grayling. When she first started as a cashier in 1945, hand-cranked cash registers were still in use. Now she uses a computer check-out machine.

"After you use the new computer cash registers a while, you completely forget about the old ones," she said.

Lillian, a native of Grayling, said it was just as busy working in the old A & P (located where Mac's Drugs is) as in the new store.

"Back then, we were the only large food store before Glen's moved in," she said.

Cashier work has grown more complicated, however, with customers using more checks, food stamps, and coupons. She said the types of shoppers haven't changed much over the years, but the food they buy has.

"People buy a lot more junk food these days," she said.

After she retires, Lillian plans to work a lot on her yard and clean her house. She also plans to travel, possibly going to Florida this winter.

"I'm going to enjoy myself working in my yard and traveling, but I'll miss all the people I see at the A & P."

Grayling, Michigan—Thursday, Sept. 3, 1981

From Our Corner ...

We attended the second annual Roast last Thursday evening at the Officers Club at Camp Grayling and have never heard so many lies told about one of the nicest guys in Grayling, and just in one evening...

Really, when we consented to be Roasted by this group we were told that they were all friends, and not to worry too much...now that it is over we have had second thoughts, if one considers this panel as friends, this ol' fella needs no enemies...

The barbs that were thrown out during the evening by the likes of George Stencil, Jack Alef, Larry McNamara, Mike Anthony, Arnie Mauren, Mike Branch, Paul Thomson, Joann Shively, John Naour, Emil Kraus, Gloria Kraus, Bill Joseph, Walt Brown and Svend Madsen, of Gaylord, (even my brother got in the act) Irv McIsaac and Dean Molnar...and Jim Shively the Master of Ceremonies took his turn of humiliating this writer...

In fact the recipient of all those barbs dished out against him were considered slanderous and the recipient has already contacted his counsel...

To say the only sunburn this fella gets is walking across the street from his office to his second office that takes him 30 minutes to make the walk...now that is slanderous, it really only takes about 3 minutes...

One thing that came out of the roast was quite unexpected, that was when we were presented the proclamation stating that we were now a citizen and native of Grayling and Crawford County...Grayling's elder statesman, Bill Joseph presented the document that was signed by the members of the County Board of Commissioners, Grayling Township and the City of Grayling...now that we have made it Mr. Alef, I'll try and see what help we can give to you in your quest of becoming a native...

Oh well, it is all over with, and now maybe we can get to thinking about other things...according to Marty VanDeVen, chairman of the Roast, the evening netted about $1,300 that will go to help finance the Winter Sports Carnival to be held next February...

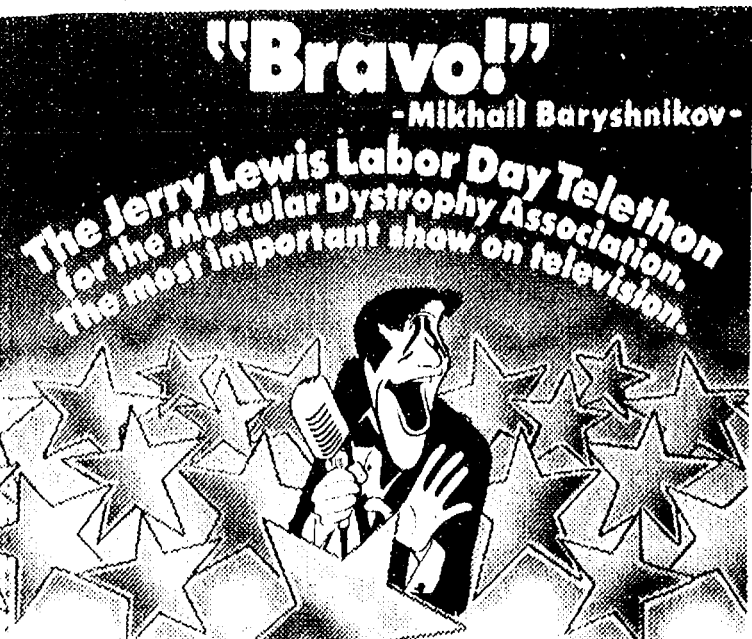

An idle thought...Bill Joseph did make one nice statement during the Roast, that was when he introduced Harold "Spike" MacNeven as Mr. Grayling...Spike, back in the high jinks days ran Spike's Keg O' Nails and while doing so he promoted Grayling all over the world...

We have no comment on the millage election other than to say it was quite evident the majority of the people in Crawford County do not want any added taxes...Jon Thompson has the story on the vote on the front page...

Another idle thought...recognition must be made to the following who donated their time to make the 2nd annual Roast the success that it was...they were Merry Merideth, Marty VanDeVen and Sharon Priebe who handled the bar, entertainment and food respectively...and to the other gals and guys who worked the floor and to Lori who took real good care of the ol' fella and his bride...

We were pleasantly surprised Monday evening when Magee Learst and his brother Floyd stopped by the Avalanche to say a hello...we haven't seen Magee in quite awhile and at first we didn't recognize him because he didn't have his big cigar in his mouth, his trademark for many years...

Time to call a halt to this turkey for this week, we're headed for some orange pop...goodnight T.J., Stef and Amber...and to all our readers, have a nice weekend, it's the last big summer holiday...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

God's Wrath Will
Not Excuse Ignorance

Romans 2:12-16

Many people think they can escape God's wrath against sin by avoiding church and ignoring the Bible. They assume that God will not hold them accountable for the things they are ignorant of. Even here upon earth, the civil courts will not accept ignorance of the law for an excuse. How much more will the God of Heaven who has revealed His perfect will to us in the Bible, hold us accountable for the conduct demanded there.

God has decreed eternal death for sinners who die without Christ regardless of their wisdom or ignorance of God's law. "For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law." Romans 2:12. Ignorance will be no excuse before God.

It does not impress God how often you go to church or read your Bible. God is impressed when you allow the Holy Spirit to make the Bible live in your daily life. "(For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.)" Romans 2:13. God is impressed only when your character and conduct match your profession of faith.

We find even pagan peoples with some high moral standards within their societies concerning respect for life, honor, property, family etc. These people even without the Bible reflect some of God's laws in their daily lives. "For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves." Romans 2:14.

Even pagan people who have never seen a Bible, are taught by God through natural creation to know certain truth. They "do by nature the things contained in the law." "Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts or else excusing one another." Romans 2:15. Just as we already studied in Romans 1:19, 20 that God's Deity and Power are taught to all men through God's Creation. Now we learn that all human beings have certain moral laws written upon their inner heart which their conscience reminds them of.

In light of the above truth, how do we explain the open practice of sins in Grayling which even some pagan societies would not permit? "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron."

We are certainly in "the latter times" and liberal preachers are speaking lies in hypocrisy" led by "seducing spirits" which teach "doctrines of devils" instead of the truth of God's Holy Word. People think since their seared conscience gives them no pain from sin, God will ignore their violation of the moral laws God has written upon their hearts. Please don't be deceived. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (adv.)

Talents Bloom in Northern Climate

By Jon Thompson

In a community which has raised few artists, the talents of Cheryl Stephan, 25,
 have grown bountifully. Stephan, a native with deep family roots in Grayling, paints, does wood and
 leather burnings, and etches
 on glass.

Her talents mainly were nurtured by self-instruction-

first in school art classes,
 later in making gifts for her large family. Now, she sells or barters much of her work,
 but she doesn't call herself a commercial artist.

"I could never be an artist
 who just works for money -
 someone who would turn out 100 paintings of the same thing," she said. "The first painting would be better than the last because you would be so bored with it at the end you wouldn't be able to do good work."

Stephan switches from paintings to drawings to etchings or burnings, whatever she interested in. From the summertime until December 25, however, she's usually busy making Christmas gifts for her family and filling orders for customers.

Her work has appeared in local businesses, has been sent overseas, and one of her projects stands 40 feet above
 motorists along the I-75
 business loop.

"It took me 20 hours to paint the Paul Bunyan figure in front of AuSable-Manistee Realty," she said. "I sure was glad I painted the top half while it was on the ground because standing on that ladder about 20 feet up painting his waist was high enough."

Stephan does many of her paintings on cheese boxes.
 For wood burnings, she builds most of her table tops
 or other surfaces. Occasionally, she'll even do an etching on a fungus.

"If you find one of those white fungus growing on the side of a tree during the right time of year, you can mark on it and the marks will turn brown when they dry. You can make some pretty nice things with them."

Although Stephan has been displaying her work for years, she said she was never more nervous than recently when her niece took her to school to show her work for Show-and-Tell.

Cheryl also donated a painting to be sold to help pay for an art program in the Crawford-AuSable Elementary Schools.

"When I was going to school, we didn't have any art classes until 7th grade.
 We painted a few things and made drawings for special days like Christmas, Mother's Day, Easter, and other times, but the time to start kids in art is in elementary school when they are still uninhibited and don't hide their feelings."

Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bovee

A guest of Mrs. Irene LaRush all last week was her niece, Rita Fennell of New Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. David Welch and family of Rockford spent several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bartell and her sister and family, the David Englands. Also visiting were Rev. and Mrs. C.F. Olin of Zephyrhills, Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendrickson of Alpena.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bovee attended the Michigan District Kiwanis annual convention held at the Michigan Inn in Southfield the weekend of August 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sorenson and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sullivan and children of Marlette, were in Barbeau, Michigan, in the UP to spend a week vacationing and fishing.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Scheer from August 7 to 14 were good friends, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Myking and daughter of Rialto, California. It was their first visit to Michigan and while they were here they all enjoyed a trip to Mackinac Island. On August 9 while they were here, the Scheers had a family dinner and baby shower for Mike and Kelly Fortino of Paris, Michigan.

Mrs. Evelyn Burley of Lansing was a guest of Leon and Jackie D'Amour for a week recently. The D'Amours also visited Mrs. Clayton Newton in Flint.

David Somerville spent a couple of weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Roberts in Ithaca. Gretchen Dice is now spending a week with her grandmother. Both are children of Mr. and Mrs. George Dice.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

They rise out of the untold years' old duff of the forest floor like ghosts. In some places they are known as the Corpse Plant, Convulsion Root and Fits Roots. The botanist knows them by the Latin name Monotropa uniflora, but in this neck of the woods, we call them by the common name of Indian Pipe. This member of the wintergreen family grows in clusters and, when fresh, is white or occasionally tinged with pink but as it reaches maturity, the plant turns black and finally it becomes brown and woody to the touch.

When the flowers first emerge from the ground, they droop in the form of a pipe, hence the name, but they later become erect growing to six or eight inches tall. The Indian Pipe has no green tissue to use in the manufacturing of food for itself. Its entire root system is squeezed into a clump of fungus mycelium so the roots themselves do not come into contact with the soil but gain their nourishment from the fungi, which in turn get theirs from the decaying vegetation they are growing in.

Each year I start looking for them in mid-July even though they do not normally show up until early August. I have learned the hard way that the earlier they appear in the shaded, moist duff under the Virgin Pines, the earlier the ground becomes white with snow. There were a few in the Tall Timber late in July, so we shall see.

Policy Adopted to Allow Intervenors in Interim Rate Cases

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

The Public Service Commission (PSC) has adopted a new policy to allow consumer groups and others to oppose utility companies who ask for interim rate increases.

The plan, however, was opposed by Commissioner Edwyna Anderson on grounds, she said, that it makes it easier for utilities to get interim rate hikes.

The policy was adopted following an Ingham County Circuit Court order that intervenors in interim rate cases be permitted to challenge any request.

Previously, the PSC prohibited intervenors from taking part in interim rates relief cases.

The policy will only be in existence until a definitive ruling from the Court of Appeals is issued, according to chairman Daniel Demlow.

Anderson, the only Democrat on the three-member commission, said changes made by the majority in the requirements that a utility must show before getting interim relief means "participation (by consumer groups) may be meaningless if all a company is required to show is an immediate revenue deficiency to justify interim relief."

Previously, she said, a utility had to show that at least one of four things had happened before getting an interim rate hike.

These include difficulty in borrowing money, a sudden revenue loss, the potential for unreasonable and harmful revenue loss, or irreparable harm.

Anderson also complained that the new rule was "arbitrary action rapidly pushed through by the majority in anticipation of Chairman Demlow's imminent departure from the commission."

Demlow has resigned from the commission, but is staying on until a successor is appointed by the governor.

Anderson argued that she did not have a chance to discuss the proposed policy and that whoever chairs the commission after Demlow should be able to voice an opinion on the matter instead of it being decided before he leaves.

Prison Sentence Review To Be Conducted

A special committee of judges, attorneys and prison officials will begin work in early September to develop recommendations for the Supreme Court regarding appellate court review of sentences handed down by trial judges.

The state's highest court appointed Court of Appeals Judge Daniel Walsh to head the 15-member committee, which is another phase of the court's sentencing project.

It has already received recommendations from another special panel regarding guidelines for judges to use in determining sentence severity.

Walsh said the main impetus for both sentence review and sentence guidelines is the disparity of sentencing from court to court and in various areas of the state.

Currently, he said an appellate court may order resentencing where the punishment is adjudged to be "cruel and unusual" as well as in some other limited circumstances, but he added a sentence review procedure could "make it easier to adjust a sentence that does not measure up to the constitutional standard of cruel and unusual."

In appointing the committee, the high court said it wants recommendations on whether the concept should be pursued; the form of the review procedure; whether the review of sentences would be done by panels of trial judges, appellate judges or some other group; whether the prosecution, as well as the defendant, could seek review of a sentence; whether the reviewing body could increase as well as decrease a sentence; and what the criteria would be for review.

Walsh said he hoped final recommendations could be developed within six months.

SCHOOL'S OPEN—Pedestrian accidents involving school-aged youngsters rarely occur at intersections, especially if they are patrolled by safety patrol officers, adult crossing guards or police officers. Automobile Club of Michigan statistics show that some three-fourths of school-related pedestrian mishaps occur at mid-block. Motorists should heed this "School's Open" reminder held by Detroit-area safety patrol officer Dennis Kansier and parents should urge their children to cross only at intersections. About one million elementary pupils will be traveling to and from school in Michigan beginning Sept. 9.

Strolling
Around Town

By Fay Bovee

Since it's rather difficult to stroll on the south business loop, I'll have to admit to seeing it from a car. Which brings me to a favorite topic and that is that I feel there should be walkway, possibly a blacktop bicycle path along the business loop as far south as the Holiday Inn.
I think that would be a good project for someone to get started on. Wendy's has always kept their lawn very nicely mowed and watered - I'm wondering who is responsible for the brush pile
by the tracks? At the light, George's station has been mowed and litter cleaned up,
in back, and further down,
the flowers are beautiful at the Big Boy, and McDonald's has an attractive fence and wagon and lumber display.
The city has been short of help this summer besides having many projects to work on but the parking lot at the city park is beginning to take shape. A lot of grading has been done.
Come on, let's pitch in and help get some of those weeds
cut that are outside your lot lines, don't wait for someone else to do it! I don't have enough onions to give out
this week for all the weeds
and litter that I've seen!

Frederic Fire Department
reports 1 ambulance call and no fires.

Frederic Fire Department
picnic held on Sunday was well attended, it was so good to see so many friends at one time and meet new ones. Some played horseshoe, others at the waterball, yours truly had a go at it. Two of the ladies of the ambulance crew, Sally Weaver and Mary Osga were challenged to play against two of the firemen, Chuck Stoddard and Dan Brandes. I say they came out even, gave us a good show. To the chef's for outstanding hamburgers and hot dogs. The ambulance crew put on a demonstration of a car accident in attending the victim's. Very impressive. It really held the youngsters attention. If you are interested in learning first aid there is a class to be held in Grayling, Starting Sept. 8th. It is a 15 week course, but very rewarding. If you are interested contact Tony Doremire at 348-9971. If there is one in Frederic will get the word out. Thank you for a nice Sunday afternoon, to the firemen
and their wives.

Happy Birthday to Senior Citizen Edith Brown of Village
Manor, Sept. 3rd.; Harold Breckow Sept. 1; Frank
Brown of Maple Forest Sept. 6
Walter Desnoyers Sept. 8th
and Ise Mehlhorn Sept. 9th.

A big thanks to each and every one who had a part in helping with the Frederic Library rummage and bake sale. It was well attended. The baked goods went so fast they didn't have time to get on the table. I always said we have good bakers here. Special thanks goes to the Sportsmen Club for letting us use their building.

It was nice seeing Bill and Gretchen (Payne) Welsh from Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Allen from Lansing were to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Allen, and enjoyed their-self at the picnic, and later joined by Fred and Sharon Allen and children of Grayling.

Tony Avey of Redford was a guest of his great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Desnoyers.

Ezra Sander has been a patient in the Franklin
Hospital at Vicksburg, Michigan. He expects to return home Aug. 27th in Burr Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Sander are former residents of Frederic.

The Frederic Hobby Club
met Aug. 24th at the Town Hall. An auction and bingo fun night was enjoyed by all.
There were 12 people present, Merna Newberry served as hostess. The next meeting is to be held Sept. 14 and the hostess will be Thelma Post.

Have a Happy Holiday and play safe.

Lamaze Child Birth Classes

Lamaze Childbirth classes will begin in the Grayling area on Tuesday, September 8th, 1981, at 7:00 p.m. in the North Wing Dining Room at Mercy Hospital.

By preparing for childbirth, couples learn what to expect in pregnancy, labor and birth, and learn how to participate and share in the work to be done. The father learns the skills he can use as a labor coach. The mother learns effective tools to use in pregnancy and childbirth to reduce the discomfort. Preparing and working together in childbirth helps make the birth of a child a unique and gratifying experience.

Anyone interested in more information about Lamaze Childbirth classes should call Marilyn Rosi at 348-5189.

Mary Sidwell had net of 32 while Shirley had 13 putts. Betty Layman chipped in to give her a bird on No. 5. In Flight B, Thelma Bateman came in with a 53 and tied with Clara Beaufait for low while Doris Birtcher had a net of 32 and Jeanne Thompson dropped in only 14 putts. In Flight C, Elsie Jansen had a low of 54 with a net of 33 and Peri Griffith took low putts with 14. Peri chipped in on No. 9 as did Carolyn DiPonio on No. 1.

During the lunch, they were entertained with a Jazzercise demonstration put on by Chris Bills and one of her students.

Eddie Blaha conducted the business meeting during which election for two new board members for the 1982 season were selected. Winning the election were Nancy Hoffman and Carolyn DiPonio. Faith Stripe discussed the new suggestions for golf for next year but it was decided by the golf committee to continue with the same rules.

On Thursday evening, August 27, the couples league, Hookers and Slicers, ended up their season with a final night potluck and awarding of prizes. Newcomers Jack and Phyllis Stewart came in first place to continue their winning streak for the summer. The Ralph Kasemans were awarded low game of the day for the Scotch Twosomes. The Tom Bradys won the low on No. 4 hitting into the innertube and the Frank Corbets won high. To the Editor:

An Open Letter to the Crawford County Taxpayers' Assn.:

Although your recent anti-millage ad campaign came as absolutely no surprise, it is difficult for me not to comment on the all-time low you reached with your recent "NO ADAPTABILITY, FLEXIBILITY or IMPROVISING" bit of drivel. It is incomprehensible how any group could form a committee to turn out such vicious and unfeeling attacks with such little obvious concern for the targets of your lack of insight.

I submit that your organization is guilty of working to destroy many efforts to make what is left of a school system better. Your ability to generate negative thought and energy is astounding and leaves me wondering what you could do for the schools and for the community if you turned your negative attitude about 180 degrees to the positive.

You might address yourselves to the problems caused by our current tax structure not by attempting to destroy educational opportunities and teaching careers, but by seeing to it that the legislators we so absent-mindedly keep returning to Lansing do not get elected again.

If your organization is to be judged by the "literature" it produces in the form of "advertising" then the "bankruptcy" you referred to in your last anti-millage piece is none other than your own.

The Weekly Headline

Grandpa fumed when I took this picture. "It won't look natural," he said. "My desk is never clean."

It's clean now. The umbrella stand is empty, the hat rack is bare. His old Web press has been retired. But Grandpa's presence lingers on.

For over fifty years he printed the Mayfield Progress, reporting the news with integrity. There were times when he was threatened, cajoled by attempted bribery, menaced by pressure groups, but he stayed true to principle. He was a giant in our town.

What made Grandpa strong in the face of danger — incorrupt when confronted by unscrupulous forces?

His church was the center and circumference of his being. Its truths and its goodness sustained him. It was all that he needed — he remained steadfast and sure.

Your church is eager to help you meet the pressures of your day. Its resources are unlimited and eternal. Go to your church or synagogue and take your family with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron White, owners of the Chief Shoppenagon Motor Hotel, announced this week, the appointment of Willa Dean Cusick, long time employee of the hotel, to assistant manager.
Mrs. Cusick, a resident of Higgins Lake, has been employed at the hotel as a clerk and registrar, since 1969.

Just Us Club
The Just Us Club and their husbands were treated to an Annual Fish Fry on Sunday, August 23rd at the home of Jon McLeod, on the AuSable. Norma and Sam Gust (long-distance members) bring our treat from Florida. He fries the fish out-of-doors over a wood fire in a Paul Bunyan Pan...Mmmmm!
Guests for the day were one time members, Evelyn Jones, Lansing and Yvonne Overly, Allen Park and their husbands, as well as Joyce and Bill Sorenson.
The afternoon together was sort of an Anniversary for six original members who will observe 48 years together, this Fall of '81, namely, Dagmar SanCarter, Dorothy McLeod, Lois LaGrow, Madonna LaMotte, Muriel Marshall, Wilma LaGrow. (Elna Mae Moshier, the other charter member was unable to attend). Mildred Blaine and myself complete the Number 10 ...Perfect! Without Friends life would be like a Garden without Flowers.
